Dear Brethren:

Brother Taylor contacted me some days ago in connection with the work there. I deeply appreciate the kind consideration but was unable to consider it.

I have since learned of the availability of a man that I know well, a man of experience as a gospel preacher. His name is Charles Lucas, 625 Avenue "D", N.E., Winter Haven, Florida. Brother Lucas has preached in Memphis, Tennessee, Greenville, Mississippi and is now in Winter Haven previously having preached in several other areas. He is the father of two children both of whom are now married and he and his wife are a very fine early middle aged couple.

I can recommend him to you and would like to encourage your consideration of him. Any other references you might make or check could be channeled through V.P. Black, Box 35, Plateau, Alabama.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
